HALVA

Halva "Deva-i Misk", 41-Spices Halva

LOCAL FLAVOR

Deva-i Misk, one of the historical desserts, is known as an Ottoman Palace dessert. There are 41 kinds of spices in the Deva-i Misk halva, which means "cure-all". This halva is made with 41- spices, egg whites and honey. According to rumors, the sultan's daughter gets sick and The Sultan brings physicians. Physicians find the remedy of the sultan's daughter in this halva. The sultan's daughter gets well after eating this halva. For this reason, Deva-i Misk has a very important place in the Ottoman Cuisine. According to the legend, those who consume this halva cure their troubles, their troubles disappear and regain their health. Not only those who seek cure but also those who want to enjoy the palace halva consume it. Indeed, when you go through the content of halva, all the ingredients it consists of are beneficial separately. It has become a taste specific to Edirne since the Ottoman period. This halva is among the priority foods of the famous wrestlers in Edirne. This halva is known for the abundant energy it gives to people. That's why wrestlers consume a lot.
